

Edgefield Advertiser.

Capt. N. G. Evans.

The race for the house in this county is now a three cornered one, the third candidate being Capt. N. G. Evans who makes his formal announcement this week. Capt. Evans is not asking for a place about which he knows nothing, as he has in the past served as a member of the house of representatives four years from this county. He is fully capable of representing the people with credit to himself and with honor to the county. In due season he will swing around the county and meet the people face-to-face, letting them know what his platform is. This much of it we can announce in advance: he stands four square for Woodrow Wilson against Hughes, Roosevelt, et al.

Edgefield Holds Silver Contest.

Sunday afternoon at the Methodist church the superintendent of the Anti-Narcotics department of the W. C. T. U., Mrs. W. E. Lott and Mrs. M. P. Wells superintendent of the medal contests, held a silver medal contest on the cigarette question, this being the Sunday set apart by the W. C. T. U. for that subject.

Rev. A. L. Gunter conducted the exercises and added greatly to the occasion by his kindly interest and sympathy in the subject. Misses Luri and Sophie Mims had charge of the music, and a very pretty duet was among the features of the program.

The contestants were, Corrie Cheatham, Edward Peak, Helen Nicholson, John Wells, Eleanor Mims and Allen Edwards, each selection portraying the evils of the cigarette.

Edwin Folk made a very practical and convincing talk on the evils of the cigarette at the close of the contest.

The judges were Harold Norris, Ouida Pattison and Janice Morgan, and Harold Norris, in behalf of the judges presented the silver medal to Corrie Cheatham who now wears two silver medals, one for song and one for declamation. Corrie can now contest for a W. C. T. U. gold medal when the occasion arises.

Citadel Again Honored.

The superintendent of the Citadel has just received a telegram from the adjutant general of the army stating that as a result of the inspection of the Citadel in April it was again placed on the list of distinguished colleges by the war department. It also asked for the name of the cadet of the graduating class designated for the commission in the army. Col. Bond designated Cadet Francis Wilkerson Sheppard, captain of B company of Edgefield. The appointment is well deserved. Both Col. Bond, the superintendent of the Citadel, and Col. Garey, the army officer who is commandant, are much gratified over the telegram received.

This is the ninth consecutive time the Citadel has been on the list, and it is well understood that this time it stands close to the top, if not at that envied position. Col. Garey said that he was especially gratified, because the Citadel was now competing with all the great universities, such as Harvard and Princeton, who have military departments, and who are striving to get on the list, which is limited to ten institutions.—News and Courier.

Meeting of Civic League.

The Civic League will hold its regular monthly meeting Monday afternoon, June 19 at the home of Mrs. M. A. Taylor at 5 o'clock. At this meeting the annual election of officers will take place. The president urges a full attendance. New members will be cordially welcomed.

The Civic League has recently ordered a dozen street waste cans, which will soon be installed in the business and adjoining residential portions of our town. In order to reimburse their treasury they will give a motion picture show Friday evening, June 16 at 8:30 o'clock in the opera house. At this time Frances Bushman will be seen in "Pennington's Choice." This famous movie star is a favorite with Edgefield audiences and the ladies of the league ask the full co-operation of our community in their cause. Let every man, woman and child be on hand Friday evening. Tickets will be 20 cents for adults, 15 cents for children. The ladies will also have a booth just inside the door of the opera house for the purpose of selling all kinds of home-made candy, chocolate fudge, divinity fudge, caramels, mints and other kinds. Don't forget to try some of this delicious candy just before the show.

Come in and take a look at the shirts in the latest styles. Prices are right.

Letter From Mt. Zion.

(Written for last week.)

On the 4th Sunday in May Rev. P. B. Lanham preached an exceptionally good sermon to his congregation at Mt. Zion church. A larger crowd than usual was present, having come together for the purpose of considering the advisability of moving the church. The question was not discussed that day however, a motion being passed to defer the matter till the 4th Sunday in June.

A committee was appointed on this day too, to make arrangements as to time and place for having a Sunday school picnic. This will be held when most convenient for the farmers and announcement of the date will be made later.

While returning from church that day Mrs. W. J. Gaines received a telegram announcing the sudden death of her father. Rev. W. A. Gaines, at his home in Seneca, on Saturday night, the 27th of May. She and Mr. Gaines took the 4:40 Western Carolina train at Augusta that afternoon and went to the home of her brother, Mr. J. M. Gaines, in Greenwood that night. The interment was to have been on Monday afternoon, but some of the relatives from distant states could not reach there in time, so it took place at 5 o'clock on Tuesday afternoon at Edgewood cemetery, Greenwood. The funeral services were conducted by Rev. T. M. Galphin, pastor of the Baptist church at Seneca, who accompanied the family to Greenwood. This solemn occasion brought together a large concourse of relatives from this and other states, and while all were oppressed by sadness at having to give up the wise and beloved old patriarch of the family, yet there was joy at seeing face to face near and dear relatives who had not been seen in twenty-five to thirty years. Many beautiful floral tributes were sent from distant friends. These completely covered the fresh earth of the grave, so that beneath a canopy of flowers, this grand old soldier of the cross was left to sleep from his long life of arduous toil.

Mr. B. F. Gaines of Darlington came over to Greenwood for his grandfather's funeral and returned home with his father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Gaines. After a short visit to them, he will return to Darlington where he will spend the summer in coaching some pupils of the high school and also to be present at the weekly drill, he having been elected 1st lieutenant in the military company recently organized there by Col. Henry T. Thompson. Next fall he will resume work in the Darlington high school.

Mr. E. Pendleton Gaines came over from Edgefield on Thursday for a week-end visit his parents. On Sunday evening the young members of the family returned with him to Edgefield and attended the Baptist church to hear Dr. Jones preach.

On the 4th Sunday afternoon, Mr. Richard Williams from Greenwood made a hurried visit to the home of Mr. W. J. Gaines.

Mr. Walter Carpenter of our community has treated his family to a glossy Ford touring car. I guess the work animals rejoice at all such events as this.

Mrs. J. C. Whitlock has returned from Kitchings Mill, much improved in health.

We had a fine attendance at Sunday school last Sunday. In fact our school is steadily growing. Besides a goodly number of young people who are fully grown, there is an increasing number coming in who range in age from six to sixteen. These furnish to the leaders a great inspiration to faithfulness in their work. Here is a fertile soil for the "seed sowing," and some day the spiritual harvest will surely be gathered. We have decided that our picnic for the Sunday school shall be on the fourth of July and we are not going to supply merely comforts for our bodies, but we are going to invite some able speakers who will minister to the needs of our minds and our souls. It is hoped that a large crowd will be present next

Padgett-Cleveland.

The following is a copy of invitations that have been issued to the approaching marriage of an Edgefield young lady who is widely beloved and whose marriage has been one of the leading topics of conversation in local social circles for some time:

"Mr. and Mrs. Augustus Elliott Padgett request the honor of your presence at the marriage of their daughter, Natalie Kathryn, to Mr. James Norwood Cleveland on Wednesday evening, June twenty-eighth at half after eight o'clock First Baptist church Edgefield, South Carolina."

News Items From Red Hill.

There was a very large congregation that worshipped at Rehoboth Sunday. At the close of the service Mr. J. B. Gilchrist and Mamie West were married by the pastor. These young people are very popular among their large circle of friends, and all join in wishing them a long and useful life.

Our old friend, Mr. Press Strom, has been very ill. We hope for him a speedy recovery.

Mr. James Gilchrist came up from Augusta Sunday in his new Ford. His many friends were delighted to see him at Rehoboth.

Mrs. James Talbert, who has been in the hospital for treatment, has returned home much improved.

Miss Sue Johnston, who has been quite ill with pneumonia, is improving to the delight of her many friends.

Miss Kate Moultrie of Rehoboth has more young chickens than we have seen this spring. They are right now big enough to fry.

The year is half gone, and our three old bachelors are still here. Oh, why don't the girls propose!

Statement Concerning Colored School.

We collected for the school that is held in the W. A. and B. Society hall $322 this term and had 175 boys and girls enrolled. We hope to have the white trustees to consider us and help us the next term, as we have not been receiving any help from them in the past.

Sunday to complete arrangements for the picnic.

On last Friday afternoon the woman's missionary society met at the home of Mrs. W. J. Gaines. After devotional exercises the president gave a talk on the Scriptural command to spread the gospel. The routine business was then transacted. The society was glad to receive a new member in the person of Mrs. Pritchard. One number is a great acquisition to any society when that member is a person of good judgment, and one whose heart is in the right place.

After the deliberations of the society were over refreshments were served in the shape of cake and ice cream. The next meeting will be held with Mrs. W. A. Pardue.

Mr. E. M. Padgett has bought a beautiful new Dodge car, so his young people are having some pleasant trips in it. They went last Sunday to Johnston in the forenoon and at night went to Trenton to hear Rev. Mr. Bailey preach at the Presbyterian church.

Mr. Walter Carpenter carried his family in his car on last Sunday to spend the day with relatives in Augusta.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Gaines came down from Greenwood last Friday afternoon and spent the night with the family of Mr. W. J. Gaines.

Parkville's Corn Prizes.

The Parkville fair and welfare association determined to add to the wealth of the district, thought that the best way to do so was to make the farmers all work a little harder and each become richer. So as an inducement it has offered prizes for the biggest yield of corn grown to the acre in the Parkville school district.

If results are the same as when The Advertiser offered prizes a few years ago many more will benefit than the prize winners and be permanently stimulated to better farming and bigger barns. A first prize of ten dollars is to be given to the man or boy growing the most corn to the acre and a second prize to the one growing the second largest amount.

Responsible and disinterested persons will be appointed in the fall by the president of the association Mr. W. M. Robertson to witness the measuring of the land and of the corn.

A prize of five dollars is offered for the best ten ears of corn exhibited at the corn show to be held in the fall. It is confidently hoped that Parkville will revive its fair this fall in connection with the Chautauqua.

Face Discolored
Suffered Agony.

Charleston Woman Would Become Unconscious For Half a Day.

TANLAC HELPED HER.

After having been unable to work for four months on account of ill health, during which period she suffered from chills, fever, indigestion and that most repugnant and discomforting of all complaints of belching, which would continue for an hour at a time, Mrs. L. Boylet, well known housewife of No. 2 Blake street, Charleston, has added her name to the thousands who have found relief in the use of Tanlac.

"I suffered from indigestion and chills and fever," states Mrs. Boylet. "My indigestion caused me terrible pains in my stomach and chest, and I would sometimes belch for an hour at a time. I suffered something terrible at times. It seemed that I could not digest anything I ate."

"I suffered from extreme headaches and was extremely nervous, jumping at the slightest noise. After eating I would have a pretty full feeling in my stomach and I became very weak. These chills and fever would come on me very suddenly. I would be sitting, talking to my friends possibly, and severe pains would start running up my limbs. In a few minutes they would spread to my back and upper body. Then those terrible pains would continue for hours. Chills would set in and I would go to bed. In a short while I would become unconscious, remaining so for nearly half a day. I had these spells about twice a year and have had them for about four years. Sometimes my feet and ankles would swell to double normal size and sometimes a large blister would form on my knees. This would first turn red and burn just exactly like a red-hot iron being pressed to me. In a day or two it would turn into a real blister. When this blister was opened and the water let out it would turn into a very bad sore. I tell you, I suffered terribly. I had not been to work for four months because of my poor health. Sometimes I would turn black in the face, and have been pronounced dead while in the grip of these spells. These two conditions were gradually killing me. I do not believe that I would have lived very long if I had not got relief when I did."

"I read of some of the wonderful things that Tanlac was doing, and one of these statements was that of a friend whom I have known for more than fifteen years.

"The relief that I received from Tanlac has been wonderful. It has relieved me of my indigestion entirely. My appetite is just too good. I can eat, and crave nearly everything."

"Those headaches I had (they nearly drove me out of my mind at times) have been entirely relieved. I have not had a headache since I started taking Tanlac, and my nervousness is gone. I have not had one of those spells, although I have passed the period when they usually come upon me. I do not believe that I will ever have them again. They have come on me regularly at about the middle of May, and they did not come on me this year because I took Tanlac, I know."

"Tanlac is certainly a wonderful medicine, and may God bless it and you. I most surely do recommend it. It has performed a miracle in my case."

Tanlac, the master medicine, is sold exclusively by Penn & Holstein, Edgefield; Johnston Drug Co., Johnston; G. W. Wise, Trenton. Price: $1.00 per bottle straight.—Adv.
